It was very successful and the Catholic Theologian was excellent.</li> <li>- Arleen mentioned that the Women's Time to Be had over 50 women signed up. Good feedback on this event. The next event will be in January. The topic will be the Catholic Church View of Marriage.</li> <li>- With respect to the new church campaign, the Finance Committee was asked to start thinking about the financial aspects.</li> </ul>

New Business/General

- There was a discussion on a program for families to work on together. It started with an individual from Denver, a program called Families and Character. This individual stated it all starts with today's "No Discipline" in our society.
  - Father Frank is going to look into this program
  - Arleen said we can find it online and sign up for it.
  - The fees are $99 per family
  - Arleen has signed up to be a facilitator
- Dennis mentioned that we have some wonderful classes in our church but we see the same people signing up for them. How do we get new people involved?
- Dennis had a discussion with Dan Aedo on the activity he was doing with our youth. This needs to be advertised more to our parish. There also was a discussion of having youth masses once a month.
